A World Without Boundaries

My mantra in life is...
Don't give up.
Great things take time.

Mon rêve le plus grand...
un monde sans limites et sans frontières.

I am inspired by the history of the Milan Fuorisalone. It's pure creativity and invention...
The heritage of my country, Italy.

The project I wish I could have thought of myself is, without a doubt, The Casa do Vidro, in Sao Paulo, by Lina Bo Bardi.

I dream of sharing vegetarian Cantonese food with Lina Bo Bardi, Cleopatra and Michelle Obama. What a treat!

If a spell were to turn me into an object, by all means, I'd choose to become a bowl. Solely considered useful if and when taken for granted... when missed, it becomes oh-so precious!
